

2004 Mitchelton Airstrip

Highly Recommended Rating

"Fresh, rich and appealing, with pronounced honey-stone fruit aromas and flavours. The mouthfilling nature of this wine makes it immediately attractive."

Winewise

Lester Jesberg

01/04/2007

"...full bodied white oozing with powerful aromatics..."

Donna Hay Magazine

Mary Ann Egan

01/03/2008

Silver Medal

"Developed and toasty. Stone fruit and savoury hints. Really well balanced. Nice firm fruit."

2007 Decanter Magazine 'World Wine Awards'

01/09/2007

"Very restrained and elegant, this rather evolved and savoury white blend has a delicate bouquet of honeysuckle and lemon rind, dried flowers and grilled nuts backed by vanilla oak and buttery, toasty bottled-aged aspects."

The Australian Wine Annual 2008

Jeremy Oliver

01/10/2007

"...its toasty lemon flavours...complex musk and apricot...this is a delicious dry white with texture and plenty of interest."

Canberra Times

Fergus McGhie

25/07/2007

91 Points

"An interesting wine, with a complex mix of developed and more primary fruit...should continue to develop typical honeyed/nutty/honeysuckle characters..."

James Halliday Australian Wine Companion 2008

James Halliday

01/08/2007

2004 Mitchelton Parish Shiraz Viognier

94 Points

"Excellent colour, and no reduction on the bouquet; rich, multi-layered flavours...impressive wine."

James Halliday Australian Wine Companion 2008

James Halliday

01/08/2007

2003 Mitchelton Crescent

"An honest, robust red wine of good character. The nose has quite exotic spice aromas, earthy touches and scents of raspberry, blackberry and aniseed."

The Penguin Good Australian Wine Guide

Huon Hooke and Ralph Kyte-Powell

01/10/2005