The Wine Society's Young Winemaker of the Year Hosts Two Exclusive Dinners

The Wine Society's Young Winemaker of the Year will be hosting two exclusive dinners this September in Sydney and Melbourne just months before he relinquishes his title to this year's winner.

Ben Haines of Mitchelton Wines, Victoria, will be hosting the two events in Sydney and Melbourne in celebration of the 40th anniversary of the winery.

Ben will be matching vertical vintages of his winning Blackwood Park Riesling (1996, 2002, 2008 & 2009) and Print Shiraz (1991, 1999, 2002 & 2006) with sumptuous dinners at Buon Ricardo in Sydney and The Italian in Melbourne.

Notes to editor: The Wine Society, Australia's largest and oldest independent wine club, was established in 1946 when Dr. Gilbert Phillips and a group of wine loving friends shared a collective vision and passion to purchase and distribute Australian table wine. Today that vision continues and The Wine Society boasts almost 60,000 members across Australia.
